

Privacy Policy

UniCou Ltd is committed to protecting personal data and respecting privacy rights. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and share personal data in compliance with the UK GDPR, Data Protection Act 2018, and applicable international data protection laws.

We collect personal data such as names, contact details, academic records, and identification documents for legitimate business purposes, including student counselling, university applications, visa guidance, marketing, and service improvement.

Personal data may be shared with trusted associates, partner institutions, service providers, and regulatory authorities where necessary and lawful. Such sharing supports education placement, legal compliance, business development, lead management, and market analysis.

We implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to safeguard personal data. Data is retained only for as long as necessary for its intended purpose or legal obligations.

Individuals have rights regarding their personal data, including access, correction, deletion, and objection to processing. Requests can be made by contacting UniCou Ltd directly.
